*The Story
of your Big Day*

Congratulations, you're getting married! We hope you have a really fantastic day.

And afterwards, you can make sure that you have the greatest memories from the day in a set of photographs that relive the story of your big day.

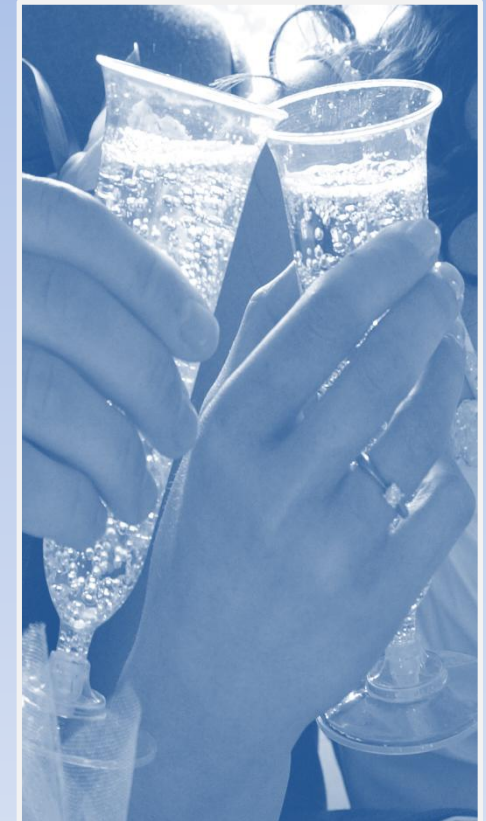

We cover North Wales, Cheshire and surrounding areas specialising in wedding and other social photography. Our wedding packages are put together to give our clients exactly what they want. We never forget that we work for you and with you on your wedding day and will do our utmost to meet all reasonable requests. Our aim is to not to be too intrusive and to help create a friendly, happy atmosphere.

We have put together a variety of packages to suit every budget. It doesn't matter which option you choose because you are guaranteed to get the very best set of photographs that we can produce from your wedding.

A typical time sequence for your photography might be as follows:-

- Initial meeting to discuss ideas, dates, style, suitability etc.
- Agreement meeting to formalise requirements and sign contract. Booking fee payable.
- Remainder of payment due no later than one month before the day.
- Further contact to make final arrangements.
- The "Big Day". Photographs will include arrivals at the venue, the service (if permitted), signing the register, first picture of the newly-weds, formal group photographs, bride and groom with the wedding car, romantic studies away from guests and mock cutting of the cake. Special requests for particular shots can also be made.
- On a pre-arranged date following return from honeymoon, further meeting to view proofs and order album, reprints, enlargements etc. as required.

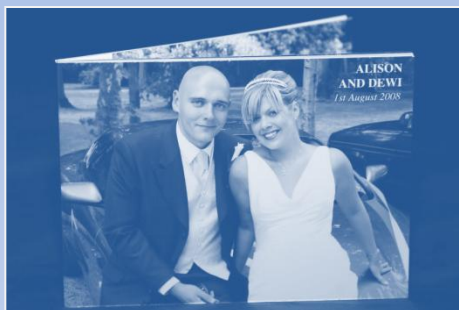

Dave Henrys LBPPA is a qualified member of the Society of Wedding and Portrait Photographers (SWPP) and has a wide experience of photographing many different types of wedding.

Wedding Photography Packages

The beautiful hand-made Italian albums from Graphistudio are at the heart of the packages that we offer (apart from the “Introductory” featuring budget and basic options). We consider them to be the perfect way to display your treasured memories from your special day.

We offer their albums in two sizes, 35 cm x 25 cm or 30 cm x 20 cm, which can be portrait or landscape in orientation. They come boxed as standard but in the “Premium” options they are supplied in a suitably sized briefcase. Any of these main albums can be reproduced as smaller replicas for family and friends to have their own memento from the day.

Whichever option you choose, a suitable number of photographs will be selected from those taken, to reflect the story of the day in the best possible way. They will be presented to the Bride & Groom in the form of a suitable proof book, as a complete set of thumbnail photographs to help choose album pictures, reprints and enlargements and other photographic gifts.

Also included within each package is the provision of a secure internet site on the Dave Henrys Photography website (www.dhphotos.co.uk) to display your photographs for family and friends to view and purchase reprints, enlargements and other photographic gift products directly from the photographer, without the need to involve the Bride and Groom. In addition, we will arrange for a suitable photograph to be sent for possible publication in your local newspaper.

WEEKDAY SPECIAL: If you are getting married on a weekday, Monday to Friday, you may claim a 10% discount on all package prices quoted in this brochure.

Prices quoted in this brochure are correct as at July 2010 but may be subject to future variation – please check with us

Introductory Package

For those on a budget, the “Introductory “ options offer a value service that will still provide a wonderful set of pictures to mark the big day. Photographs will be taken from arrivals at the venue through to a suitable point at the wedding breakfast, usually at the point where you sit down to eat. There is no Graphistudio album included, but the “Budget” options do include a lovely 20-page coffee table photobook to display your photographs.

The following options are available within this package:-

BASIC PRICE = £ 600

Disk only. All final images are provided on a disk with license to reproduce for your own use only.

FREE CONSULTATION / NO OBLIGATION: We encourage the bride and groom-to-be to meet with us to discuss specific requirements, have a look at sample albums and view photographs taken at other weddings. We take you through the clauses in our no nonsense contract and terms of agreement and we provide a firm quotation for the services that you require. We make no charge for this meeting (which will normally be held in your own home) and you are under no obligation to book our services, although we naturally hope that at the end of the meeting you will be suitably impressed by what we can offer you! We would like to wish you all the very best whoever you ultimately choose to take the photographs on your special day.
